The Type of Dominant I Am

The world of BDSM covers 3 main categories:

Bondage & Discipline (BD)

Dominance & Submission (SD)

Sadism and Masochism (SM)

Where am I?

There are sites out there that can 'test' you? I'll give a quick summary now.

- Bondage & Discipline - I enjoy this. One will find themselves tied up, chained, displays, restrained or otherwise bound. And there will be Discipline!
- Dominance and Submission - I am not looking for vanilla relationship.
- Sadism and masochism - I enjoy the masochist and look forward to allow them to satisfy their sexual desires and reach the gratification they desire. I realize that there is a 'dark' part of me that would love to help someone else this trait (ie: I am the sadist).

Where are you?
