To be, or not to be, that is the question

I was listening to something on my local public radio station, and this question was spoken of*

For me the dilemma is different, but...

I've ran my life, I rented to place, I had my own car, I had my own banking and money, I ensured I housed and feed. And while we could have find exploring and debating how well or how much, the result is I was responsible. I did not need someone else, I did not require someone else to help me. I covered it, all.

So, now the question, find a "partner". Someone who is an 'equal' in a relationship, or do I go a different route?

The choices:

- Partner
- Other (Help Wanted)

Or there is another way... A Sub, Slave, Pet, Fucktoy
