

Luna & Goldie are Gone

Category: Chickens

written by admin | January 2, 2024

On Saturday (a few days prior), I forgot to get the chickens out, that plus being gone all day Sunday;

this meant that they did not get out of the hutch for 2-days. So Monday morning I did let them out, they are very happy about that. And with the idea that I owned then a day, I choose to leave the out Monday night as I was going to be gone on Tuesday, and did not want to keep them locked out yet another day.

Sadly, when I got home Tuesday both Luna & Goldie had been killed by something. This was a very sad ending to their (almost) 4-years of life.

I still (for now) have Petunia.
